The romantic comedy drama, "Down by the Sea," comes to the Barre Opera House September 8. The play tells a story of intense heart interest, the situations are strong throughout, and the characters are all faithfully drawn. Mingled with the pathetic scenes of this play is just enough high grade comedy to excite interest and create laughter. The play contains the names of many prominent players and as the scenic and mechanical effects are very elaborate, a strictly first class production is assured. This is the first attraction at the opera house under the new management.
